

ECO409 ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences – Compulsory course

Credit: 3 ECTS: 6

Course Description:

This course provides an understanding of economic development theories and comparative development. It explores sustainable development, poverty, inequality, population growth, entrepreneurship, agriculture, and the role of fiscal and monetary policies in economic development.

Course Outcomes:

- Understand the core concepts of Economic Development.
- Understand the concept of Comparative Economic Development.
- Understand the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
- Evaluate core growth and development theories.
- Evaluate the concepts of poverty, inequality, and development.
- Explain monetary and fiscal policy in relation to economic development.
- Understand the relationship between entrepreneurship and economic development.